

The Seventeenth Treatise

On the End and Institute of the Society of Jesus

1. The End and Institute of the Society of Jesus.....	3
2. Of the Excellence of This Enterprise of Saving Souls, and of Its Great Merit and Value.....	8
3. That This Enterprise Belongs to All Members of the Society, and that All Have their Share in It, Even though They Be Not Priests.....	13
4. How Necessary It Is for This End First to Ground Ourselves Right Well in Virtue.....	19
5. That Not Only Ought We Not to Neglect Our Own Advancement to Help Our Neighbor, but We Need to Be More Careful of It and More Diligent about It on His Account .....	27
6. That We Must Beware of the Other Extreme, Which Would Be Withdrawing from All Intercourse with Our Neighbor under Pretense of Attending to Ourselves.....	36
7. Sundry Remedies against the Pusillanimity of Those Who Withdraw from Helping Their Neighbor for Fear of Losing Their Own Souls.....	44
8. Of the First Means of Doing Good to Our Neighbor, Which Is a Good and Holy Life.....	50
9. Of Another Means of Helping Our Neighbor, Which Is Prayer .....	59
10. Of a Third Means of Doing Good to Our Neighbor, Which Is Zeal for Souls.....	66
11. What an Efficacious Means This Zeal Is for Helping and Improving Our Neighbor.....	70
12. Of Three Things That Will Help Us to Have This Zeal.....	73
13. What Is the Good and True Zeal That Pleases God, and What Not .....	76
14. Of Another Means to Do Our Ministrations Well Is to Keep Our Eyes on the Soul That Makes the Inner Man, and Not on Outward and Exterior Appearances.....	84
15. Of Another Means of Helping Our Neighbor, Which Is to Abandon All Confidence in Ourselves and Put Our Whole Trust in God .....	88

16. Of the Great Efficacy of This Practice of Putting Confidence in God for the Obtaining of Blessings at His Hands	96
17. How Very Displeasing to God Is Want of Confidence.....	101
18. That We Must Not Be Discouraged nor Lose Heart, though We See Little Fruit Produced by Our Labors among Our Neighbors .....	104

The Eighteenth Treatise

On the Vows of Religion

1. That the Perfection of a Religious Consists in the Perfect Observance of the Three Vows That He Makes of Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience.....	117
2. Why These Things are Done and Confirmed Under Vow....	120
3. Of Other Great Benefits and Advantages That the Obligation of the Vows Carries with It.....	123
4. Why the Surrender That One Makes of Oneself to Religion by These Three Vows Is Called by the Saints a Second Baptism and a Martyrdom.....	125
5. That Liberty Is Not Given Up or Diminished by Vows, but Rather Is Perfected.....	129
6. Of the Great Blessings That There Are in Religion, and the Gratitude That We Owe to God for Having Called Us to It .....	132
7. Continuation of the Subject of the Previous Chapter.....	142
8. Of the Renovation of Vows Practised in the Society, and of the Fruit Meant to Be Gained Thereby.....	144
9. Continuation of the Subject of the Previous Chapter.....	149

The Nineteenth Treatise

On the Vow of Poverty

1. That the Vow of Poverty Is the Foundation of Evangelical Perfection .....	157
2. Of the Great Reward Wherewith the Lord Rewards the Poor of Spirit .....	161
3. That God Rewards the Poor in Spirit Not Only in the Next Life but Also in This.....	164

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xi

4. In What Poverty of Spirit Consists.....	167
5. Of Religious Who, Having Left Greater Things, Get a Passion in Religion for Lesser Things.....	174
6. Of Three Degrees of Poverty.....	177
7. Of Some Means to Arrive at Poverty in Spirit and Preserve Ourselves Therein.....	179
8. Of Another Means That Will Greatly Help Us to Attain Poverty in Spirit and Keep Us in the Same.....	185
9. What Has Been Said Is Confirmed by Some Examples.....	189
10. To What and How a Religious Is Bound by the Vow of Poverty .....	192
11. Explaining How It Is against the Vow of Poverty to Receive or Give Anything without Leave of the Superior, Even though the Thing Be Not Belonging to the House..	197
12. Coming Down to Particular Cases of Certain Things Contrary to the Vow of Poverty.....	201
13. An Answer to an Objection Which Throws Much Light on This Matter .....	206
14. That the Vow of Poverty Binds under Mortal Sin, and What Quantity Is Enough to Make a Mortal Sin.....	211
15. Whether a Religious Can Receive Money to Lay Out in Pious Works without Leave of the Superior, and When He Would Sin Therein against the Vow of Poverty.....	213
16. What Has Been Said Is Confirmed by Some Examples.....	219

The Twentieth Treatise

On the Virtue of Chastity

1. Of the Excellence of the Virtue of Chastity, and the Degrees Whereby We Are to Mount to the Perfection Thereof .....	227
2. That to Preserve Chastity, Mortification of All the Senses, and Especially of the Eyes, Is Necessary.....	231
3. That, Particularly in This Virtue of Chastity, It Is Necessary to Make Much Account of Small Things.....	233
4. That in Confession We Should Take Particular Account of Anything Contrary to Chastity.....	237
5. How Violent and Dangerous Is the Passion of Love, and How Much We Ought to Fear It.....	240

6. Of Some Remedies against Impure Temptations.....	244
7. That Penance and Mortification of the Flesh Is a Very Proper and Main Remedy against This Temptation.....	249
8. Of Other Remedies against Impure Temptations.....	255
9. Of the Fear of God.....	258
10. Of the Great Advantages That There Are in This Fear of God .....	266
11. In Which What Has Been Said Is Confirmed by Some Examples .....	269

The Twenty-first Treatise

On the Virtue of Obedience

1. Of the Excellence of the Virtue of Obedience.....	275
2. Of the Need That We Have of the Virtue of Obedience.....	281
3. Of the First Degree of Obedience.....	284
4. Of the Second Degree of Obedience.....	290
5. Of the Third Degree of Obedience.....	294
6. Of Blind Obedience.....	298
7. Of the Obedience Necessary in Spiritual Things.....	306
8. In Which What Has Been Said Is Confirmed by Some Examples .....	313
9. Of the Source and Origin of Judgments Contrary to Obedience, and the Means Whereby We May Help Ourselves against Them .....	319
10. An Explanation of the Three Reasons That the Apostle St. Paul Gives for Obedience.....	327
11. Of a Very Main and Efficacious Means for Gaining the Virtue of Obedience in Its Perfection, Which Is to Obey the Superior as Christ Our Lord.....	334
12. That It Is a Necessary Means for Acquiring the Virtue of Obedience to Obey the Superior as Christ.....	340
13. Of Other Great Advantages There Are in Obeying the Superior as Christ .....	343
14. That God Takes as Spoken against Himself Any Disparaging and Complaining Words Spoken against the Superior	346
15. That Obedience Does Not Prevent Our Exposing Our Wants, and of the Conduct to Be Observed in Such a Case.....	350

16. Of Excessive Solitude in What Regards the Body, and How Proper It Is to Avoid Singularities Here.....	358
17. An Answer to a Scruple about the Duty of Looking After One's Health.....	364
18. What Has Been Said Is Confirmed by Some Examples.....	370

The Twenty-second Treatise

On the Observance of the Rules

1. Of the Great Favor and Benefit God Has Done Us in Encompassing Us with Rules.....	377
2. That Our Perfection Consists in the Observance of the Rules .....	380
3. That though Our Rules Do Not Bind under Sin, We Should Not Make That an Excuse for Neglecting to Observe Them .....	383
4. That although the Matter about Which a Rule Deals Is Trifling, This Is No Excuse, but Tells Rather against Him Who Does Not Keep It.....	385
5. Of the Great Mischief That Comes of Making Light of the Rules, Even though It Be in Small Things.....	388
6. Of the Great Blessings That Follow Upon Observance of Rules, and Setting Much Store by Them, Even in Small Things .....	392
7. What Has Been Said Is Confirmed by Some Examples.....	396
8. Of Some Other Things Which Cause Us to Fail in the Observance of the Rules, and of the Remedy for Them..	400
9. Of Other Means to Help Us in Keeping the Rules.....	405

The Twenty-third Treatise

On the Manifestation of Conscience

1. How Important and Necessary It Is to Deal Openly with Our Superiors .....	415
2. What a Great Relief and Consolation It Is for a Man to Be Open with His Superior and Spiritual Father, and the Blessings and Benefits That Ensue Therefrom.....	422

3. That to Discover Temptations to the Superior or Spiritual Father Is a Very Efficacious Means to Take against Them	428
4. That No One Ought to Omit Telling His Temptations to His Spiritual Father on the Plea That He Already Knows the Means to Be Taken to Meet Them.....	433
5. That None Should Omit Manifesting Things because They Look Trifling.....	434
6. Some First Answers to the Difficulties That Usually Hinder This Openness in Manifestation.....	439
7. Meeting the Main Difficulty That Is Apt to Stand in the Way of Openness in Manifestation.....	442
8. Another Way of Meeting the Aforesaid Difficulty.....	449
9. That We Owe Much Gratitude to God for Making the Account of Conscience in the Society so Easy and Pleasant, and How It Comes to Be So.....	452
10. Of the Method to Be Observed in Giving an Account of Conscience .....	457
11. Answers to Certain Doubts Arising from the Above.....	463

The Twenty-fourth Treatise

On Fraternal Correction

1. That Correction Is a Mark of Love, and the Great Good There Is in It.....	473
2. That Pride Is the Cause of Our Not Taking Correction Well .....	478
3. Of the Inconveniences and Losses That Follow from Not Taking Correction Well.....	480
4. How Important It Is to Take Correction and Admonition Well .....	482
5. What Has Been Said in the Foregoing Chapter Confirmed by Examples .....	488
6. Of the Rule and Constitution That We Have in the Society of Discovering the Faults of Our Brethren Immediately to the Superior.....	490
7. Sundry Important Warnings in This Matter.....	500